We're at the end of the road, Father. I pray that they ... that in Jesus' name, that You'll bring sinners to Thee, for we ask it for His glory.

¹⁸⁷ And while every head is bowed, I wonder today, while we're standing here in the presence of God, and of this great strange company, if there be a man or a woman here that's outside of Christ, down here on the bottom floor, will raise up your hand, and do so by saying this to Jesus—not to me, your brother, but to Christ—say, “Lord, I'm a sinner. I want You to save me. I want to come. I've been tossed about. I've wondered long whether it was right or not. I want to know whether I'm right. I want You to reveal Yourself to me today. I raise up my hand to You, Lord.”

¹⁸⁸ Will you raise your hand, anywhere on the bottom floor? God bless you. That's good. God bless you, brother. Someone else? God bless you. Someone else? God bless you, sister. God bless you, brother. That's wonderful. God bless you, sir, I see your hand over there.

Everyone be in prayer now. Say, “Lord, be merciful to me.” God bless you, lady, I see you way over to my left.

Just put up your hand, and say, “Does that do any good, Brother Branham?” Certainly. Remember, His presence is here.

¹⁹⁰ Is there anybody else in that part of the balcony, would raise your hand? God bless you. Around to the left, over here, is there anyone over here would raise your hand? God bless you back there, sir. God bless you, lady. God bless you, you, you, you. Yes. God bless you. That's ... God bless you, sir, I see your hand.

Remember the Lord Jesus sees you. Let's just...

Fellowship By Blood

¹ Thank you very much. And good evening, friends. Certainly a privilege to be here this afternoon in this lovely auditorium packed out with people, worshippers of the Lord Jesus Christ.

² Kind of a little warm, but we can put up with that, I believe, for a few moments, as we fellowship around His Word, and be a partaker of the sufferings of the cross, the glory of God, and the resurrection that follows the cross.

³ And now, we are very thankful for the attendance that we've had out at the stadium. It's been certainly a privilege to serve out there these last two nights, the reverence of the people and the attention, undivided attention that the people give. We're so grateful for that. And everything's just going fine.

And we're expecting God to do some great healings out there this week also—healing the people from their sicknesses.

⁵ Now, that is my ministry, is to pray for the sick. And usually the manager of the meeting does the speaking, and I just confine my ministry altogether to praying for the sick. And it makes it better. Of course, I can put more time to it and studying. Walking to the platform and just start praying for the sick is quite a bit different than what it is when you go there and try to preach a little while, perhaps an altar call, and then pray for the sick, and line the people up, and other things goes with it.

⁶ Usually Sunday afternoons is give to me for a little time of fellowship with the people, to kind of relax and rejoice with them. And many times people has thought that I was a complete isolationist, because that I didn't get out among the people. But that's wrong, my beloved friend. I love people and fellowship, I guess, as good as any person could do it.

⁷ But I find this, that if I'm out among the people, I'm away from God. I either have to be a servant of God or a servant to the people. And then, I know that all who believe on Him and accept Him, I'll have all eternity to fellowship with every one of them.

⁸ But it's working time now. My father used to say.... On Sunday, all of us boys wanted to go swimming. Through the week, the harvest time was on and so forth. After we'd have all the ... pitch hay till plumb dark, then we had to milk the cows, and feed, and so forth. I'd say, "Well, Dad, we won't have any time to go swimming." He said, "You can do that when the harvest time is over." Well, that's right.

⁹ And I'm so glad that one day harvest is going to be ended. And then it'll be over. I want to make an appointment with every one of you. You know, I'd like to come out to your house, and visit with you, and enjoy some good old-fashioned southern cooking. I like that. I would like to do that. I can't do it now.

¹⁰ But I'll make an appointment with you. After this life is ended, I just want a thousand years with each one of you. So we can just sit around. Won't have any less time with the next one. Just sit around over there, and sit down at Jacob's well, as it was, and rejoice together, and have a lot of time of fellowship. Won't that be wonderful?

Now, this afternoon, I'm going to try not to keep you very long, because it's hot, and I know you got church service tonight. It's getting late in the afternoon.

¹² And now, I want to speak to you just a little around the Word, fellowship just a little while around the Word of God, for a blessing. And while we do, I want to read a portion of Scripture found in the book of I John and beginning at the 1st chapter and the 5th verse.

the power of His resurrection, till when He calls, from among the dead I'll come out with them who are alive.

Oh sinner man, today, without a hope, not in you.

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood with righteousness.
When all around my soul gives
Then He is all my hope and stay.

For on Christ the solid Rock I stand,
All other ground is sinking sand.
All other ground is sinking sand.

Let it be church denomination, fellowship with this world, whatever it is, it's all sinking sands outside of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Shall we bow our heads just a moment? Everyone, be quietly in prayer.

184 Our Heavenly Father, we're so thankful for Thee. Just imagine that You was to hold that old rugged cross upon Your shoulders, blood streaming down Your back. There you were going to Calvary to take my place. Maybe before morning You'll call me. There may be some here, Lord, You could call before the sun sets this afternoon.

¹⁸⁵ Standing here today, practically, as far as we know, healthy people, yet their heart may cease before the sun sets. There may be people in this auditorium today that might be in torment if they die in their condition before the sun sets tonight, or may go to sleep tonight a healthy, joyful, laughing people, and before she rises in the morning, be in another world. When these threads that we're walking on, called "threads of life," is brittle, we don't know when they shall break.

¹⁸⁶ Have mercy today, God, and bless the unsaved, and bring them into the fellowship of Thy dear, beloved Son. Do it, Father. Let them know that only in reconciliation through the blood of the Lord Jesus that they might receive Him today. Thou art healing the sick, making the blind to see, the deaf to hear, raising up the dead after they've passed from this life. The doctors walk away and haul them off to the morgue and You come along and bring them up again.

the One which was the seed of the woman that was to bruise the serpent's head.

Death has a sting. I can see the bee of death stinging around Him, fixing to take Him, just in a few minutes, just buzzing.

¹⁷⁷ After awhile, when He's hung yonder to the cross to die between heavens and earth, the bee of death will sting Him. But, anybody knows that when a bee or an insect who has a stinger, if it once stings, he pulls his stinger out. It don't have any more sting.

¹⁷⁸ Christ the Son of God, being God made in flesh, come to the world, and made in sinful flesh that He might take the stinger of death out.

¹⁷⁹ Now, when the believer comes in the presence of God, and death begins to strike him, death could buzz like a bee; but it can't sting again. Death don't have any stinger no more for the believer. It was sunk in Christ Jesus there at the cross, where the Lamb of God was slain from the foundation of the world to take the sin of every unbeliever upon Himself.

And there He is, hanging there. No wonder Paul could say, when they was building the chop-block there. . . .

1COR15:55

¹⁸¹ What did he say? He said, "Oh death, where is your sting? Grave, where is your victory? But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

¹⁸³ When my heart beats its last time, I don't want to walk through that door like a coward. I don't want to walk through that door like somebody of this world. I want to walk there knowing this: that when the last beat comes, I want to wrap myself in the robes of His righteousness, and go in with Him knowing this: that I know Him in

This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth.

But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

How marvelous! Let us bow our heads now, while we speak to the author of this Word.

¹³ Our heavenly Father, we're grateful today unto Thee, the author and finisher of our faith, who came to the earth and was clothed upon, humiliated in a body made like unto a sinful man's body. There You bore our sickness, our diseases, our sins, in Thy own flesh, and there paid the full price of redemption, that man through believing on Thy great death, the supreme sacrifice, might be reconciled back into fellowship with God again.

¹⁴ And at some glorious day in the near future, that these vile bodies of ours will be changed and made like unto His own glorious body. For we shall see Him as He is. And it does not yet appear just what we shall be at the final end, but we know that we'll have a body like His. For we shall see Him as He is.

¹⁵ Oh, how we long today, seeing sickness gripping on every hand; sin, heartaches, troubles. . . . This old pest house. . . . We get homesick once in awhile, to get out of it all. But while we're journeying, our loved ones are here; many of them alienated from Thee without hope, without God, without mercy. And we love to speak to them of Thy loving-kindness.

¹⁶ Won't You come today Father, and join in with us and circumcise the lips that speak and the ears that hear? And may we have fellowship around the Word. For we ask it in His name. Amen.

Speaking just for a few moments. . . . I believe I stand a little too close to this; it has a terrible voice.

¹⁷ Going back to the Word.... I love the Word. For after all, that's where we said last night that faith takes its solemn basis; its stand is on the Word.

¹⁸ Now, someone might come in and say, "Well, I seen this happen or that happen." But yet, if it has no Scriptural background, we just can't hardly believe that it's true. But when we find "Thus saith the Lord," that settles it to me. God said so, that's.... His Word is eternally true. And we love the Word.

¹⁹ Now, there's.... The greatest thing that we mortals can have is fellowship. And I want to speak on "Fellowship Through The Reconciliation Of The Blood" this afternoon, if God's willing, just for a little short time.

²⁰ My boy and some of my associates has been telling me about the meeting. Of course, it all becomes a subconscious condition to me after anointing comes on. I know maybe some of you Methodist brethren and Presbyterian and so forth, it may seem like, Oh, I believe, Brother Branham, that's a little fanatical. Well, it would to me, if I didn't know any different. But when it becomes a reality, when.... If you only stood in the tracks, you'd know it was real, coming from God.

²¹ Last two weeks ... three weeks ago, it is now, in Chicago, we had a great meeting in an auditorium about like this. Or, it's been a little longer than that; it was on a.... I don't know just the date it was. Anyhow, there was a Catholic priest's son, not a Roman, but an Orthodox Catholic priest. His son was converted in the meeting. And he was....

²² That night the manager closing of the service, we was out for a little time of fellowship. And he had just gave his life to the Lord Jesus. And he said, "Oh, if I could just have a few moments of fellowship." And he wanted to tell me his story. And he come from Greece; his father being a priest, in the Grecian Catholic Church.

²³ He had another man with him that had brought him all the way from Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he runs a chain of restaurants. And this man lived down in Illinois. And he told the story of how he come to get saved. This man was an architect that built great skyscrapers across the nation.

He'd done nothing of Himself, but giving praise and glory to God for it.

ISA53:3 JOHN1:11

¹⁷¹ The church of that day condemned Him, and refused Him, and said, "He won't join up with our church, so we won't have nothing to do with Him." And refused the members to receive Him. "He came to His own, and His own received Him not." He was despised and rejected and turned down: the very God of heaven manifested in flesh.

¹⁷² It's a morning in Jerusalem; we're in a room. Let's pull the curtains back; I hear a noise outside. Let's look out the door just a moment. There, coming down through the streets, comes a man with a cross on His back, bloody footprints going along the streets, and the old cross dragging out the footprints of the bearer; bumping around on those old cobblestones as He went up the street, going up to the capital punishment place to die.

The crowds going along, some of them hollering, "Oh, He healed my baby."

Another said, "What has He done?"

¹⁷³ The other one said, "Away with such a person! He don't even need to live. He won't agree with our church. He won't agree with our theology. Away with such a person."

¹⁷⁴ He had a little white robe across His shoulders. I noticed on that little robe, there's little white dots ... white robe with little red dots all over it. I wonder what those dots are. As He moves on up towards Calvary, I can see them little dots getting bigger, bigger. Little red dots as He's going up towards Calvary. They get bigger, and bigger. After awhile they all run into one big red splotch.

¹⁷⁵ I hear something again going [Brother Branham makes a tapping sound.] What is it? It's the second Adam: the blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son, bleeding out a bloody path for every sinner that wants to take the road.

GEN3:15 JOHN1:11

¹⁷⁶ Going up the hill, forsaken, tears running down His cheeks. "He came to His own, and His own received Him not." There He goes, eyes; they look like the stars of heaven; tears running down her cheeks. They'll be wrinkled after awhile. That pretty blond hair hanging down her back will turn gray. That great shaggy black hair on Adam will turn gray one of these days. Those great huge muscles will shrink away, and come into the dust, and skin worms will crawl through. Got to go.

¹⁶⁶ Sickness and sorrow lays in his path. And there he goes, going out through there, now, without hope, turned out of the presence of God. I can see him with his arm around his sweetheart, the tears running down his cheeks, dripping off on her head, and it running down over her body; the tears and blood mixed together from them old bloody sheepskins. And there they start out through the Garden of Eden, condemned.

JOHN5:19

¹⁷⁰ Let's change our camera now to four thousand years later. In Jerusalem one morning, there'd been a great racket around through the country for three and a half years, that there was a fellow around there, healing the sick, performing miracles, seeing visions. He claimed to be the Son of God. He claimed that God was in Him; that ²⁴ And he said that his friend from over somewhere around Moline, Illinois, called him and said, "John, I want you to meet me at the station. I'm coming in. I want to go down to where Brother Branham is having a campaign. I want to ask him if he'll pray for my little girl, who's dying with rheumatic fever of the heart. The doctors has give her up." Well, he said....

²⁵ He told me, said, "I seen the piece in the paper, and I thought it was just a bunch of fanatics." Said, "I said, 'Well, wonder what he's doing going to a meeting like that.'"

²⁷ So, he got.... After he met his friend, why, the man, his friend, was the one who builds the skyscrapers, they come down into the city, and said, "Well, it's at some school." Said, "We can just take our time." Said, "School auditorium." Said, "It's a big one that seats several thousand people. So I guess we have plenty of room. So, we'll just take our time." Said, "Probably there'd be fifty to seventy-five people there, that'd be about all." Said, "Most of the people that hang around such as that, is Pentecostals and holy-rollers and so forth."

²⁸ But, he said when he got to the grounds, he couldn't even get on the school grounds, let alone in the building. The people were out into the streets. Well, said they made their way through, up till they got to the door. The book-man standing there, he said, "We want to speak to Brother Branham."

He said, "Well, that's him on the platform praying for the sick now."

Said, "Well, I'd like to speak to him about my girl."

²⁹ He said, "You can't do it," said, "because already praying." He said, "There's no way at all to seeing him." Said, "You'd have to go through the manager and so forth. And during the time of the meeting, they don't permit people to do that." Said, "Just write your request out, and hand it to one of the ushers, and they'll probably get it back to the manager, and manager get it over to him."

³⁰ Said, "My, that's the way it is, huh?" So, he was very much disappointed. So, he said to his friend, said, "Well, let's just come down along the aisle as far as we can."

So, one of the ushers, he gave him the slip, said, "Give this to where he can get to it."

³² He said, "Well, I won't be able to see him now till after the meeting. See the manager." So, he took the little slip. And the usher said, "Why don't you pray?" Said, "Stand there and pray."

He said, "Well, I've prayed for about two weeks, and my baby is dying."

Said, "Well, just keep on praying."

³³ So, the man stood there, and he begin to notice the Holy Spirit coming out into the audience and telling certain people certain things. While he heard me make a few remarks, he said, "Lord Jesus, if that be of You, then let the man speak to me." Said he no more than got it out of his mouth till I turned around and said, "The two gentlemen standing there in the aisle, one of them's from Moline, Illinois; his name is So-and-so." Said, "He come here about his child." Said, "He's got a little girl who's dying with rheumatic fever in the heart. She's in the hospital." Said, "'Thus saith the Lord,' return; God's healed your child." Said he looked around to his buddy, and his buddy looked at him. Said they stood there a few minutes.

Said his buddy said to him, said, "What do you think of it?"

Said, "I believe I'll find my girl well."

So, he said, "Well, if it does, you let me know about, will you?" He said, "The man's just reading minds. That's all there is to it."

³⁴ He said, "I don't believe that." Said, "How did he read my mind back there, and I wasn't even thinking about those things. Hear him call people's sins and things, when they don't... They're not thinking of those things that they done thirty years ago and things."

sphinx, and so forth. We couldn't build it today if we had to. Gasoline power, electric power won't build it. But atomic power will.

¹⁵⁹ So, they just turned it loose, and shook the world from its orbit. And it being hot, went out and caused moisture that covered the whole earth. This time He's going to blow it into the sun. Just exactly, scientifically, right across the center the way God said it would happen. Here it is now. We're at the end time. And men are still unprepared.

¹⁶¹ Oh, you say, "I belong to church. I'm as good as you are." That's not the question. Have you received the Lord Jesus Christ as your Saviour? Have you been reconciled?

¹⁶² You say, "Well, I belong to the nicest church there is in town." That's not the idea. Are you born again of the Spirit of God? Have you fellowship, perfect fellowship? The things of the world is dead. Oh, you say, "It don't condemn me." Why, my brother, somebody ... some people don't even have conscience. They just serve to...

One time an old colored fellow, after I was preaching on the street corner, said, "Preacher, you know what your conscience is?"

I said, "I have an idea, sir. What do you think it is?"

¹⁶³ Said, "It's a little thing sets like this and got four sharp pints" (Points, he meant.) Said, "When you do anything wrong, it cuts." And said, "You keep letting it cut, it cuts a circle around there. And after awhile you don't even feel it at all." And that's right. You just keep lukewarm, drifting away, drifting away, and after awhile you're all the way gone.

¹⁶⁵ There goes Adam and Eve with their arms around one another. I can see poor little Eve now; she's crying. Those great blue sparkling

¹⁵² The scientific world screamed across the nation about five weeks ago last Sunday and said that the end time is in sight. Most anytime we could be wiped off the face of the earth. We're living at the end time.

MATT24:37 LUKE17:26

¹⁵³ As it was in the days of Noah, so is it in the coming of the Son of man. Oh, don't play, friends. Well, now, you don't understand what it is, you who stay here in America and don't know what the speculation of things are in other countries.

¹⁵⁴ Here, some time ago when they took me up over there in Finland, when I went up over by the great line there—what they call “the curtain”—they run us through about a hundred and fifty miles there of nothing but solid tunnel made with their hands. A German officer meets him with a tommy gun in his hand. The shades pulled down in the little car that we were riding in. I said, “What's this all about?” And there was a Finnish officer sitting by me. Where the little boy was raised from the dead up there, they was taking me up. I guess you've read of it and so forth.

¹⁵⁵ And he said, “There in behind that curtain there, Brother Branham,” said, “they got all kinds of secret devices. They got planes that they can shoot out there on rockets, that'd bomb your nation and take it out in about an hour's time. Nobody gets behind there.”

¹⁵⁸ And I say this, as a servant of the Lord: I believe that it could happen at any time: total annihilation. It could start at any time. Look, as the days of Noah... That's how they threw the world out of its bounds in the days Noah: when they built the pyramids and the

³⁵ He said, “Well...” Said he put him on the train that night at ten o'clock, and he got in the next morning about six. And he couldn't go to the hospital that time of the morning. So, he went upstairs and went to bed, he said. Got up at about 9:30, ten o'clock and went out to the hospital. He met the doctor, the physician standing in the office. He said, “Well, Doc, how's the child?”

³⁶ Said, “You better go get her. I can't do nothing with her.” Said he went upstairs, and she was pillow fighting with the kids around over the place.

Said, “She's been well ever since.”

³⁷ And he said, “I come to give my heart to the Lord Jesus Christ.” Said, “I criticized it.” There you are. Saving souls, that's the main thing.

³⁸ The man wanted just a little time of fellowship to say thanks for the prayer. I said, “I didn't even pray, brother. It was your faith that did it.”

⁴⁰ But the greatest fellowship that any mortal can know is when he's in the blessed presence of Almighty God. No fellowship could take its place.

⁴² I've ministered in many heathen nations where people didn't even know which is right and left hand. But I never seen a human being in my life, regardless of how far back, how primitive he may be, but what he worshipped something. He'll worship the sun. He'll worship the wind. He'll worship the stars. He'll make an image of something, because it's just in him. It's an instinct to worship, have fellowship, that it's our duties to take him the message of the living God.

⁴³ In the beginning when God made man in His own image, put him in the Garden of Eden. He had a perfect fellowship. In the late of the afternoon, the evening time when the twilight was falling, I can see the great Jehovah come across the top of the palm trees and the roaring of the thunder, when Adam and Eve gathered out there in the great open-air cathedral and worshipped God, had fellowship, talked with Him.

⁴⁵ God in harmony with His creature and the creature in harmony with his Maker. What a perfect time: a complete fellowship. That's the way God intended it.

⁴⁶ But then when man begin to sin, he separated himself from his fellowship with his Maker. Sin is what separates him. If that's the truth—which we believe it is... The Bible only speaks the truth. And if that's the truth, then if there is some preparation made for sin, then man through that preparation can come back in perfect fellowship and harmony with his Maker again. Do you believe it? That's right.

We can only find the way. We want to find the remedy.

⁴⁷ Not long ago I was in Greece, Athens, Greece. I was looking in a room practically the size of this where the Grecian artist was supposed to paint the picture of the creation. Such a horrible thing, how wicked hearts of sinful men can disguise the picture that that man painted of our father and mother, Adam and Eve. Eve standing there, a brute looking. My, she was a horrible looking thing. There stood Adam, looked like some prehistoric animal: hairs out of his nose way out like that, and his jaw setting sideways, and big tusks hanging down like an animal.

⁴⁸ That's the kind of a thought that a man without Christ can think of God's creation. But a man that's ever born again knows that God does nothing imperfect. He does all things well.

⁴⁹ I think that Adam and Eve was the most perfect couple that ever walked on earth. I can see Adam in his ... not a great shoulders like ¹⁴⁵ Why? You can't join things and fellowships like that. It's got to be the blood of Jesus Christ bring you into fellowship with Christ, the only way. My, how we could talk all evening on these things, but, friends, listen to this. You'll never, never know what perfect satisfaction is.

¹⁴⁶ You may be tossed about to and fro, joining churches, running trying to seek this, that, and the other. Every time a little something new happens here, you go to a new light, or new something.

¹⁴⁷ Why don't you just come to Christ and settle the whole thing? Once born again, that settles it forever. Once born of the Spirit of God, you have everlasting life and cannot come into condemnation, but has passed from death to life. Then you can enjoy yourself. Then it's a pleasure to pray. You don't have to wonder about whether God's going to... When you kneel to pray, you're right in His presence. When you're walking on the streets, you're right in His presence. Wherever you are, you're in His presence all the time, for you have perfect fellowship with the Son of God.

¹⁴⁸ What a marvelous victorious life! Halfway life is the most miserable thing there is. And by the way, there's no such a thing as a halfway Christian. You never seen one. You never will.

¹⁴⁹ Did you ever see a black-white bird at the same time? Did you ever see a drunk-sober man? You never did see a sinner-saint? You're either a sinner or a saint. You're on one side of the fence. If you're born again, you're saved. If you're not born again, you're outside of Christ, without hope, without God in the world. God's made preparations for you to be saved.

¹⁵⁰ He's made everything, pointed everything up to this great time. In the end time, where we're living now, when the shadows are falling... Just think, a few weeks ago... The church has been preaching for years that the Lord was coming; the end time was in sight. Everything ... everything that I know of as a minister of the Gospel is pointing to the end time. We're right now at the end.

¹⁵¹ The great pyramid... You who study that.) points to the end time (the one that Enoch made). The zodiac: It's started off with a virgin: the first coming of Christ. It's ending up with Leo the lion: the second coming. It's at hand.

He said, "You still having good crowds up at the Tabernacle?"

I said, "Wonderful."

¹³⁹ He said, "Billy, you know, since I been in this town," he said ... "The other week," said, "I sent out," said, "There's sixteen..." I mean, "There's six thousand..." Said, "I got six thousand members of this church around here somewhere." And said, "I sent out cards to make them people pledge that they'd come to prayer meeting at least six months out of the year." And said, "You know how many responded to those six thousand cards?"

I said, "No."

He said, "Two."

¹⁴⁰ So, I was down there one time at a meeting where they had a ministerial association met. I'm a member of it. And he got down there at the platform. He said, "Now, we got the best fiddler there is in the country. Not one of the best, but the best." And this sounds shocking, but you know what they played in the pulpit? "Turkey In the Straw." Yes.

¹⁴¹ They said, "We've got the best quartet there is in the country is going to sing for us. A great church at Sellersburg just above us. You know what they sang? "Home On the Range." Why, I thought the thing was going to fall in. Why, I got up and went out. I was excommunicated for doing so.

¹⁴² But look, I said, "Dr. Brown..." I told him the story about that little old half-naked girl. I said, "Do you think Mr. McMitchum is going to have to sign a card to make that woman pledge that she'll come to that dance tonight?"

Said, "No."

¹⁴³ I said, "Why? 'Cause it's in her heart. Her soul feeds on that kind of stuff." Let me see what kind of music you listen to. Let me see what kind of literature you read. I can tell you what you're made up out of. That's right.

¹⁴⁴ There, I said, "No, she would go if she had to pawn her shoes to go." I said, "If you'd have an old-fashioned altar call down there in the church and get those people filled with the Holy Ghost, when that church rings the bell, you'll not have to sign any cards. They'll come anyhow." That's right.

some barn doors, but a perfect built man; Eve, beautiful. I can see her now, when she woke up after the operation from Adam, and he looked at her. Her beautiful hair hanging down her back, her eyes sparkle like the stars above. Adam touching her by the flesh, and said, "She's flesh of my flesh and bone of my bone." Beautiful! Never to fade out. Those lips, they wouldn't have to use this here manicure or what the stuff you put on your face now to make themselves look pretty. Sin caused you to do that. God made it perfect.

⁵⁰ I can see that she hung onto his arm, and they walked through the great gardens of God: perfect, perfect in love. No harm or danger could ever come near them. Then, to see the enemy pervert that thing into a regular mess like we're in today. Just a few years bringing gray hairs, wrinkled face, funeral processions, hospital screams. That's the devil that did that.

⁵² Here it is, now listen. When a man comes out of fellowship with God, he becomes a wanderer, going about joining one church, and leaving that one and joining another. They don't satisfy him here; he goes over to the Methodist; from Methodist he goes to the Baptist, and to the Pentecostal, to the Pilgrim Holiness, from place to place, wandering about, because he's lost fellowship, fellowship with God.

⁵³ You accuse the church of this and the church of that. Maybe it's you. Just find fellowship and anywhere is home sweet home, as long as you have fellowship with the Lord. Amen. That's kind of hard, but that's good. That kind of straighten you up, give you... There's more vitamins in that, than all the drugs stores there is in the city's got. Amen.

Give you joy, peace, understanding, confidence, when you have fellowship with the Lord.

⁵⁴ I can see them after they had sinned: Man in his primitive condition there after the fall. He wants to find himself a way of escape. He wants to make it himself.

⁵⁵ Just like they do yet today. The very strain of it there shows that it's still on man. He sewed himself a fig leaf apron. Put one on Eve and thought that when God came down and called him, that he would be able to stand in the presence of God with a homemade apron. But it didn't work. When he found out that he had to stand before God, he found out that the apron would not work. Because he made it himself, and any handmade creed will never stand in the presence of God.

⁵⁶ We've tried to substitute education for fellowship. Get a bunch of people that's educated together; think that education will bring fellowship. Education... I say this: Education has been the greatest hindrance that the Gospel of Jesus Christ has ever had. That sounds strange, but it's the truth.

⁵⁸ He said, "Reverend Branham, you made a remark not long ago about education." Said, "It's the truth. Ninety percent of them in there is out of fine educated people." They get so smart they think they can outdo the law. But just a common old boy, he's afraid of the law when he brings him to discipline.

⁶⁰ So, back they've tried to substitute education for fellowship. They've tried to substitute denominations, as good as it may be. Education's all right in its place. Denominations is all right in its place.

⁶¹ Membership: They've tried to substitute membership. Membership is all right in its place, but it'll never take the place of fellowship of the Son of God.

⁶² Notice it now. Then when they realized that they had sinned and gone away from God... God had had to kill some animals, perhaps a sheep because Christ was the Lamb slain before the foundation of the

And she said, "Well wait, I'll get the money for you."

I said, "Thank you."

She said, "Can you take it for me?"

I said, "Yes, ma'am."

¹³³ She started across the floor, and there was some kind of an old worldly, crazy music come on, of some old fiddler. You know sawing, that kind of a music out, of some kind a little old song that's worldly. And she was going ... started playing it real fast like the devil does. And so, she started across the floor, and that girl forgot I was even around the place.

¹³⁴ She started across the floor dancing around, hollering, "Toodley, toodley, toodley." All around the floor, some kind of a bugs, and jitterbugs, and all other kind of rumble mumbles. And all ungodly things you ever heard of. And there she was upon the floor doing that. And directly she looked around.

¹³⁵ I stood and I thought, Well, that poor kid. I thought, My, she is really fully sold out. So, I looked at her. I thought, Well, she's nothing but a kid. That's a shame.

¹³⁶ So, after awhile she said, "Oh, "I didn't ... I forgot about you being at the door." She got the money, come to the door. She said, "I just love to 'dahnce' so well."

I said, "Yes, ma'am. I see that."

¹³⁷ So, she got down when this man said they was going to have some kind of an old ... kind of a dance out at some kind of a Green Briar Patch or something. She got down, threw him a kiss through the radio. She said, "Goodbye, deary." Said, "I'll be right there to see you."

I thought, You sure will too. There's no way at all to keep you away from it. No, sir.

¹³⁸ I went on up... A fine church in our city, great church, Dr. Brown, the pastor, a fine friend of mine... I was coming down a pole; I'd been taking some old secondaries. And I was coming down the pole. Dr. Brown come over. He said, "How are you, Billy?"

I said, "Just fine."

¹²⁷ But in that day, he went back with the same kind of a feeling he had when he come in. Now, this may pinch just a little bit to some of the brethren. Listen. The reason the man went out after offering the lamb's blood... Maybe he went out and murdered. He went out with the same murdering spirit in his heart, though he was reconciled for he had offered the blood.

¹²⁹ But when a man correctly one time comes in and lays his hands upon the head, by faith; of the Lord Jesus Christ, and confesses his sins, then the blood of Jesus Christ... The life that was in that was God Himself. And that man, the life that returns to that man after he has confessed his sins and accepted Christ, he's brought into relationship with Christ by the baptism of the Holy Ghost, and there's no more desire in his heart to sin. Amen.

¹³⁰ That's the reason Hebrews 10 said, "For the worshipper once purged has no more conscience of sin." There you have fellowship. The things of the world is dead. You don't recognize it no more. You reckon yourself dead, and your life is hid in God through Christ, sealed by the Holy Spirit. And then you're looking to heavenly things.

¹³¹ Used to be, you could hardly sit in church ten minutes. But when you really got the Holy Spirit, you could sit in church day and night, for there's something in you feeding. The trouble today people has worldly spirits. They go to church.

¹³² Here sometime ago, I was working for a utility company. And I went down to tell the lady that she hadn't paid her light bill, and they were going to come turn the services off, if she didn't pay it. And I went down to the door, and knocked on the door, and there was a little girl come to the door, a little woman about eighteen, twenty years old, about enough clothes on to wad a musket. And she come to the door, and she said, "Oh, you're from the light company." Said, "Mother told me to take the bill in a few days ago."

And I said, "Yes, ma'am."

world. And when he killed the lambs ... or, sheep, and threwed back the skins to Adam and Eve, they covered themselves in the skins and stood in the presence of God to receive their judgment and their eternal destination.

⁶³ Couldn't stand no other way; God couldn't look upon them without a covering. And God can't look upon you without a covering. And the covering in that day was blood. And that's the same covering today.

And I'm afraid that we Full Gospel people are getting a little too far off the track now, when we leave that out. Come back.

⁶⁴ Years ago I used to come to the Full Gospel meetings; and how the people acted, and then it was so much different. Now, I'm not here... You got preachers that preach to you. I come for the healing service. But I used to notice when I went (no more than a few years ago) I used to see the ladies coming to the Full Gospel meetings with long hair, dressed modestly. And today they got bobbed hair. It was a sin then; they got all kinds of paste and make-up and all kinds of stuff. What's the matter? Christ hasn't changed. Something's wrong; something happened. If it was wrong then, it's wrong now.

⁶⁵ What we need today is an old-fashioned Saint Paul's revival and the Bible, Holy Ghost preached back in the church with old time conviction, men and women coming to the Lord through the shed blood, a reconciliation, reckon themselves dead. Won't be so much fashion put on.

⁶⁶ Used to go to a place the old Methodist preacher ... he used to sing a little song. Old Brother Kelly, back home, he said, "We let down the bars. We let down the bars. We compromised with sin. We let down the bars. The sheep got out. But how did the goats get in?" You let down the bars. That's plain.

⁶⁸ Some say, "I belong to the Methodists. I belong to the Pentecostal. I belong to this." That doesn't mean that much to God. You've got to be born again. You've got to come and recognize the blood of Jesus Christ was shed for you, and you're dead to yourself and to the things of the world, and born anew in Christ Jesus, by the washing and renewing by the blood. Amen.

⁶⁹ Pretty straight, but brother, it's the truth. That's the only hope the church has today, is come back to the old fashioned way again. We got too much Hollywood evangelism. You know that's the truth.

⁷⁰ Out across the nation today you go to a place where there's supposed to be Full Gospel people.... I was here not too long ago to a meeting, the man changed his suit three times while he was preaching—all tailor made. Ladies on the platform were all saintly, they said. Fellow introduced me to his wife, and oh, I ain't.... I'm not here to criticize; I'm here to tell the truth. And the woman was the piano player, and she looked like a Hollywood star, with all the manicures, and make-ups, and things. I said, "Is she a saint?"

Said, "Yes."

I said, "She looks to me like a 'hain't.'" I said.... "Don't look...."

⁷¹ Listen brother, we're just six foot of dirt, and it's too bad that we got these things back into the church. What we need is a cleaning up, coming out. Amen. Come through the blood wash. You was just taken in. Come through the blood, and you'll have fellowship. God's dear Son: The blood of Him will reconcile you back to God and you'll act like you should.

⁷² Now, you can't do it without coming to Christ first. You can't tell a pig he's wrong eating slop till you change his nature. No matter how much you wash him up, see. You've got to get his nature right. And your nature's got to be changed from sin. Amen.

⁷³ There seeing Adam, Eve standing in the presence of God, He pronounced the judgment. He said, "Because you listened to your wife instead of God. I've taken you from the dust, and dust you shall return." Said to the wife, "Because you listened to the serpent instead of your husband, you've taken life out of the world and you'll have to bring it in, and multiply your sorrows," and so forth. "Serpent, upon your belly you'll go, dust shall be your meat, thorns and thistles," and so forth.

¹²¹ Notice, Israel wherever they was, they had only one place of fellowship; that was under the blood. When a man comes to be reconciled to God, the first he had to come into the tabernacle. That was a place where the bodies of the beast was slain. That's where the blood was on the altar and the only meeting place that Jehovah promised to meet the people, under the shed blood: the only place He ever did meet people, the only place He ever will meet people.

¹²² Someone has said thousands of times, "Brother Branham, what does it mean when you feel your own life move away from you and something sets in, takes its place?" Why it's a fellowship. It's marvelous. You know that you're not yourself anymore. You've got yourself completely surrendered to God. And it's not you talking. It's Him talking. It's not you could do anything, but you're so happy to know that He is doing it. And it's such a love about it, till you just can't contain your joy hardly—to know that God is doing something for the people.

¹²³ And how can you have fellowship with God when you can't have fellowship with one another? When churches are different, when fussing, and quarreling, and arguing just with churches, how can you expect to love God, when we can't love each other? I think it's a time that all the barriers should be broke down, and we should all be one together, one great unit.

LEVI:4

¹²⁴ Notice, when Israel come in to the shed blood.... The animal was taken up to the altar, was washed at the laver. The sinner placed his hands upon the lamb; his throat was cut. Where the lamb.... The blood was sprinkled, and the man went out reconciled through the shedding of the blood. But every time he sinned, he had to come offer a new lamb. And there was a sin offering once a year. He that trespassed that died without mercy.

¹²⁵ Now, if sin had been committed twice in a year, no matter if he was a mayor of the city, if he was a king, whoever he was, he was stoned without mercy.

¹²⁶ Now, in the case of Christ, the Lamb: If we once put our hands upon His head and confess our sins as wrong, and He accepts us, what a sorer punishment it would be to do despite to the works of grace, and to count the covenant of the blood wherewith we were sanctified, an unholy thing.

the Spirit. The power of God come on him. He foresaw the coming of the Lord. He raised on his feet; he shook himself. The thunders roared, the lightnings flashed.

¹¹⁶ Job said, “I know my Redeemer liveth, and at the last days He will stand on the earth. Though the skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Whom I shall see for myself, mine eyes shall behold, and not another.”

¹¹⁷ We’ve brought nothing into the world and it’s certain we take nothing out. What did he see? He saw that the lamb that he slayed represented the coming of the just One. And if Job could have that kind of faith in that day upon the shadow of the Son of God, what ought we to do who come into His presence through the reconciliation of His own death and blood? Amen.

¹¹⁸ There, he had perfect fellowship, and God restored him back twofold all he ever lost. The only place that Israel had.... The only place that God ever promised to meet sinners was under the blood; not under the church, now; not under the denomination. They’re all good; but under the blood.

¹¹⁹ What I’m trying to think here, friends, what I’m trying to get to you is this.... Not to say you don’t need to belong to a church; you do. But just belong to the church is not enough. It’s got to be a deep consecrated God-given Spirit of life in you. You just can’t do it on basic fellowship with the people. You’ve got to have fellowship with Christ. You’ve got to be borned again. You’ve got to come under the blood.

¹²⁰ In the blood cell alone lays the life. Christ first formed a little teeny life. He was enoused in a blood cell. But when a cruel Roman spear broke that blood cell on Calvary, then Christ was loosed: the Holy Spirit. And now, the only way that you can ever come into Christ is through that broken blood cell, through the power of God to cleanse your soul from sin and bring you into the fellowship—the only way you can do it.

Then, you’ve got everlasting life and can’t come into condemnation, because you’ve passed from death unto life.

⁷⁴ Then I can see a dramatic thing: I can see him departing out of the presence of God. And as he started walking away there.... What a condition! If it hadn’t been through the shed blood, we’d all been gone. But God reckoned Adam’s sin by the shedding of an innocent substitute.

⁷⁵ You Methodists, try a little of that in your church. And you Baptists, and you Pilgrim Holiness, and all the other different ones. Christ! Take Christ! Then you’ll find out that these great mysterious things that’s beginning to appear won’t be so mysterious to you.

PSA42:7

⁷⁶ How can you know God, unless God’s in the heart. Man can only know Him when he calls for something. David said, “When the deep calleth to the deep....” If there’s a deep in here calling there’s got to be a deep to respond to it. Before there’s a fin on a fish’s back, there had to be a water first for him to swim in to use that fin, or he wouldn’t have had no fin. Before there was a tree to grow in the earth, there had to be an earth first.

⁷⁸ Now, before there could be a crave for sulfur, there had to be a sulfur out there to respond to that crave. And before there can be a.... If there’s a desire in a human heart for more of God, there’s got to be more of God somewhere to find. If a man believes in divine healing and knows that God is a healer, there’s got to be a fountain open somewhere. For there’s got to be a deep to respond to every desire. Amen.

⁷⁹ What we need today is an old-fashioned breaking up, Cleaning out the ice box, the beer and all the fandangled things, and throw the cards off the table, and an old-fashioned prayer meeting back into the church, back into the worship of the living God. That’s what we need today—America needs. It’s the only remedy. God’s never give another remedy. Education, all these other things, will never, never be recognized until you come through the blood. Takes the blood to do it.

JOB1:7

80 Perfect fellowship: Job had it—just man. Look what a fellowship he had. When he came in the presence of God, our God... Satan came up before God, rather, with the sons of God, said, “Where you been?”

JOB1:7

Said, “Walking to-and-fro and up-and-down on the earth.”

JOB1:8

81 Said, “Have you considered my servant Job, a just man, a perfect man? There’s none like him in the earth.” What’s God saying? Job, His servant, was perfect. We’ve all read of the trials of Job, how that he went through the distressed times. Oh, I just love to read of him.

82 One year I was staying out... I preached the book of Job. Taking me about a year-and-a-half to get through it. When I got him over there on the ash heap, I kept him there for about six or eight weeks. One of the members of my congregation, she didn’t want to hurt my feelings, but she wrote me a letter.

Said, “Brother Branham, when you ever going to get Job off the ash heap?”

83 I had him out there. That was the crucial moment of Job’s life. He looked over, and he seen flowers go back to the dust of the earth (Job 14), and the flowers died. They have a regular procession for it. Frost hits it and kills the little fellow, bows its little head, the petals drop off, seed drops out.

84 Then they have a funeral procession in the sky. The clouds come over the fall of the year, and rain down, the teardrops that buries the little seed. It lays beneath the ground. The frost gets into the ground, freezes several inches deep. Through the run of the winter, the little seed swells, freezes, bursts open; the pulp runs out.

85 When spring comes along, the petal’s gone; the leaf’s gone; the stalk’s gone; the seed’s gone; the pulp’s gone. Everything that can be seen of the little seed is gone. The flower is finished, as far as man is concerned. But just let the warm sunshine rise over the eastern horizon, begin to bathe the ground. Somewhere hid in that dust is a germ of life. That little flower will live again. And if God made a was in the line of reconciliation. He offered God’s provided sacrifice, the lamb.

110 Even his wife turned against him sitting out on this ash heap scraping himself with the ... of the boils that was on him. His children was all killed, and his sheep gone. Everything looked like had happened to him, but still Job stayed right there. And his wife come out, said, “Job, why don’t you curse God and die?”

JOB2:10

He said, “Thou speakest like a foolish woman.”

JOB2:10

111 Now, he never said she was foolish; said she spoke like one. Said, “You speak like a foolish woman. The Lord gave, the Lord taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord.” There you are.

JOB32:2

112 Then down from the east came the little Prince Elihu, representative of Christ. Wish we had time to go into the name of “Elah” and so forth. Show you that it was a representative of the Lord Jesus. He came to Job, and he corrected him.

113 He said, “Now, Job, look; you’re thinking looking at the flowers how they go into the dust and they come back, a tree falls down, it comes back.” But he said, “Man layeth down, yea, giveth up the ghost. He wasteth away. Where is he? His sons come to mourn, give him honor, but he perceives it not.” Said, “You’re looking at all of that, Job.” But said, “Yet, you’re just because you offered the right provided way. You’ve come to God through fellowship. You’ve offered the slain beast. And you’re righteous, Job.”

114 And He said, “Now, those flowers never sinned, neither did the tree sin. But man sinned and he separated himself; that’s the reason he don’t come up in the springtime.” But he said, “Job, listen, there is coming One, a just One, who can stand in the breach between a sinful man and a holy God, and place His hand on each one and make reconciliation.”

115 Job, being a prophet, he got in the Spirit. That’s the only way you going to get anything anyhow is when you get in the Spirit. Got in neither one. It was a spiritual revealed truth of God to Peter that Jesus was the Son of God.

1COR12:3

¹⁰³ And the Bible said, “No man can call Jesus, ‘the Christ,’ only by the Holy Ghost.” Amen. “Upon this rock,’ He said, ‘I’ll build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will build My church upon the spiritual revealed truth.” Amen. By sovereign grace God calls His men and reveals Himself. Amen.

¹⁰⁴ That’s what Macon needs today. Not only Macon, but every city in the United States and the world over, needs a spiritual revelation of the resurrected power of the Lord Jesus Christ. It’ll stop juvenile delinquency, make these broken homes reunited again. It’ll make this country so dry that bootleggers would have to be primed thirty minutes to get enough moisture to spit.

¹⁰⁵ I’m telling you what we need today is not social affair, but a Gospel that’s preached in the power and the demonstration of the Holy Ghost: back to a fellowship with the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Why, I feel religious right now. Amen. Oh, to think that we have this great plan of salvation.

¹⁰⁶ Job, after being a prophet, knowing that his soul was clear before God... No matter how much they accused him, he knew he was innocent. And Job offered the sacrifice, the burnt offering: the only way he had of fellowship with God. But seemingly, God had turned His back on Job. But he knew he hadn’t sinned, and he stayed anyhow.

¹⁰⁷ Oh, I hope you’ll get that. Every man that comes to God must first be tried. Trials, tribulations goes in the category of a Christian. God don’t promise a flowery bed of ease. To every one of you that accept your healing, look to the devil to be right there to put every torment to you he can. For everyone that comes must first be tried.

¹⁰⁸ Job knew the sacrifice was laid out there. He offered it through the shed blood, God’s only way of reconciliation for sinners. He offered it to God, and he knew that he was just in doing so. No matter which way the waves turned, Job stood pat.

¹⁰⁹ There you are. That’s the way you do it. No matter what Mrs. Jones said, and Mrs. Job either one. Didn’t bother him. He knew he way for a flower to live again, what about a man that’s made in his own image?

⁸⁶ Here sometime ago an old Methodist preacher and I was having a little fellowship around some ice cream. The agriculture hour come on at Louisville, on the radio in a little confectionery where we were at. And we were sitting on some stools, talking about the Lord; very good old brother, born-again.

⁸⁷ And it said the little 4-H club had perfected a machine that would turn out grains of corn just as perfect as they did when they was growed in the field. Said take one handful out of the sack that the machine perfected and take a handful out of the sack that was grown in the field, there’s no difference in them at all. One would make just as good a cornbread as the other one would. Just as good a cornflakes, any ingredient. Cut them open in the laboratory, mix them together. Cut them open in the laboratory. Each one had the same amount of moisture, calcium; everything that goes into it was in every grain.

⁸⁸ Said the only way you could tell the difference was bury them. And the one that the machine produced would never come up again. But the one that God growed had a germ of life, it would raise again. I said, “Brother Kelly, take me by the hand, ‘cause I’ll embarrass you here.”

⁸⁹ For I know this one thing: Man may go to church and impersonate Christianity, act like Christianity, pay his tithes, and so forth, and live a good life in the community. But except that man’s born again, he’ll never raise in the resurrection; lost. Amen. How God has made a way of escape for those who long to accept it.

⁹⁰ Now, I want you to notice closely. Job then in all of his distress sitting out there. Church members come and turned their back to him for seven days. A little later, got any man that come to him and said, “Job, you’re a secret sinner. You’ve done something wrong. You’ve sinned secretly.”

⁹¹ Job knew he had not sinned, because he come upon the basis of God’s Word. He come upon the basis of the shed blood, knowing that God required a blood sacrifice. And blood was what Job offered, knowing that God could not refuse it. The whole picture is a perfect revelation.

⁹² In the Garden of Eden... Many people today... Now, this may hurt just a little bit. But many people today thinks if they go to church, and worship the Lord, and pay into the church, that that's good enough. Brother, God would be unjust to receive such a person.

GEN4:3,4

⁹³ In the Garden of Eden, after they were stricken and thrown out, the first child was born was Cain. The second one was Abel. And when they both realized they were mortal, they tried to find favor with God. Both of them come to the east side of Eden to the gates where the Cherubim was with the sword of fire. And both boys built an altar to the Lord. That's a church.

⁹⁴ If only belonging to church is all God requires of a sinner, to do penance, belonging to the church, God would be unjust to receive Abel and to reject Cain. Both of them had a church.

⁹⁵ Then not only that, but Cain come and offered a sacrifice. If sacrifice was all that God requires, He'd be unjust to condemn Cain. Not only that, but Cain was not an infidel. Cain was a believer. He was trying to find reconciliation. And Cain knelt down humbly, raised up his hands and worshipped the Lord. He was not a communist; neither was he an infidel. He was a believer. But he didn't have the spiritual revelation.

⁹⁶ And when Abel came... I can imagine seeing Cain decorate the altar, fine lilies and making it pretty, all "dolled up," as we call it. That's the way people think today: If they can build a great big church that'll outshine the rest of them, plush the seats, put a ten thousand-dollar pipe organ in it, and a crucifix all around it and all over it, they think that God will be pleased with it. God ain't pleased with the works of the hands of man. They're shifting sands.

GEN4:3

⁹⁷ Notice, there Cain decorating his altar, making it look pretty, thought he'd find favor with God. And he knelt down and worshipped God. If that spirit don't live today, why doesn't it? Look at it around the world.

GEN4:4

⁹⁸ Now, notice, but when Abel came, there was no beauty about his offer. He took a little grapevine, I guess, 'cause they didn't have any hemp in that day, as I know of. So, he made a grapevine rope, and put it around the little old lamb's neck, and begin to pull him up to the altar, laid him up on the rock, pulled his little head back, took a sharp rock (I guess they didn't have a lance.), begin to chop his little throat.

⁹⁹ And if anybody ever heard how those little fellows cried when they were dying... Did you ever hear a little sheep, a lamb, dying? The most pitiful bleat that you ever heard. And the hands of Abel bathed with the blood, as he chopped his throat. And the little fellow bleating, bleating.

¹⁰⁰ He couldn't speak English, so he must have been speaking in tongues. But what it spoke of was some four thousand years later, when the Lamb of God hung on the cross in His [unclear words] all bathed over in a blood, dying without a friend on earth. God looked down to Abel, and said, "That's justification." And he was just in the sight of God. Why? Because it was spiritual revelation. He had nothing else to go by, but spiritual revelation.

MATT16:13 MARK8:27 LUKE9:18

Jesus promised the disciples when they come off the mountain... Said, "Who does man say I, the son of man, am?"

MATT16:14 MARK8:28 LUKE9:19

"One of them said, 'You're Moses,' and the other one said, 'You're Elias.' And some said, 'You're Jeremiah.'"

MATT16:15 MARK8:29 LUKE9:20

He said, "Who do you say I am?"

MATT16:16 MARK8:29 LUKE9:20

Peter standing right out said, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God."

MATT16:17

¹⁰¹ He said (Listen.), "Blessed art thou Simon Barjona, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you. You never learned it in a seminary. You never learned it by any man. Flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father which is in heaven has revealed this to you."

MATT16:18

¹⁰² Now, the Catholic Church says, "It was upon Peter, the confession was made." The Protestant church said it was Christ, the Rock, that He'd build His church. But if you'll notice closely, it was
